Our thanks are due to Major G. A. Ferris, the mai agent; Mr. John F. Rodgers, the purser of the C. C.; and to Messrs. Gregory & Co. and Adams & Co.—the two California express lines—for the latest intelligence of all serts: The news from California is nearly five days later than that received by the Northern Light.

The Golden Gate left San Francisco, April 5, at 10 A. M., and arrived at Monterey, at 8 P. M. same day. She left that port at 11 P. M., April 6, and saw a steamer bound up, supposed to be the Oregon, from Panama. At 11 P. M., the G. G. came to anchor off the Island of Catalena, and remained till 8 % A. M. next day. On account of a dense fog she could not make the port of San Diego; and while endeavoring to do so a portion of the machinery got out of order, which Mr. Bills, the chief engineer, by the most arduous exertions, succeeded in repairing, with a detention of eighteen hours only.

The Golden Gate saw the clipper ship Northern Light on the 10th ult , 430 miles from Acapulco. She was bound to that port for the remaining passengers of the on the 10th uit, 439 miles from Acapulco. She was bound to that port for the remaining passengers of the wrecked steamer North America.

The New Granadian bark Isabel, from Panama, with one hundred destitute passengers, was at Acapulco on the 13th uit. The master had no provisions or money. She had been there six weeks. The Golden Gate passengers subscribed $640 for the destitute passengers.

The mails from California had a narrow escape in coming down the Chagres river; and nothing but the exertions of Major Ferris, the mail agent, and his assistants, saved them. In coming down the river the mail boat struck a risag, and was sunk, together with the mail. Had the accident occurred a few rods farther down the stream, the entire mail would have been lost, and probably the lives of all those on board the boat. The entire letter mail is saved dry and in good order, but the newspapers are considerably sonked with Chagres water.

Among the passengers by the Golden Gate are the Archishop of Oregon, the Bishop of California, W. Van Voorhees. Secretary of State; Henry Ewing, son of the Hon. Themas Ewing; and Capt. S. R. Knox. U. S. Navy, Major E. F. Whitlier, delegate from California to the Whit National Convention; Major Loring, delegate to the Democratic National Convention; and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thoshe, the well known actor and actress.

The shipments of gold dust from San Francisco have been considerable. The San Francisco Heralf of the 5th uit. gives the following statement:—

Export of Geld Durr for the Quantum tensional Convention. Here Runs Mayers and Runs and Mayers.

Ult. gives the following statement:—

The three individuals, William Baxter, Charles MeDonald and John Horrigen, who were concerned in the robbery of a carpet bag containing treasure to the amount of $3.000, from the steamer Sea Bird, a few weeks since, have been indicted. The following bills of indictments were found by the Grand Jury, at San Francisco, at their March session:—As ault with deadly weapons, 2; assault with intent to kill, 1; arson, 1; burglary, 3; murder, 6; aiding the escape of prisoners, 1; lottery, 1; robbery, 1; forgery, 1; receiving stolen goods, 1; grand larceny, 14. The mail which will leave here to-day will convey to The mail which will leave here to-day will convey to your readers intelligence of the arrest, trial, conviction, condemnation, and execution of a Mexican, named Carlos Eslava, for the crime of theft, at Mokelumne Hill. on the 1st inst. This is the first execution that has taken place in that region since the settlement of California. The criminal, in this instance, was a most hardened wretch, and, by his own confession, he was guilty not only of the crime for which he suffered death, but of many others. The circumstances under which he was arrested tried, and convicted, are as follows:—For a long time, robberies were of frequent and alarming occurrence in the vicinity of Mokelume Hill. Tents were cut open and robbed when least expected, and when their owners were but a short distance from them. Measures were taken to ferret out the robbers, both by the Vigilance Committee and other citizens, but for some time without success. A length, a few days ago, circumstances tended to astract attention to Carlos Eslava, who was several times seen in rather suspicious proximity to tents or houses which had been robbed or cut open, and upon all of which occasions he managed to get off, by pretending to be drunk. He was tried before the Vigilance Committee, and found guilty. In fact, the testimony against him was so conclusive that he admitted his guilt, and at once alandoned the pretence of being intoxicated, which he maintained when his trial commenced. The result was that he was convicted and sentenced to be executed. Accordingly, at fifteen minutes to 3 o'clock in the afternoon, the prisoner was brought down for execution, accompanied by a large guard of the Vigilance Committee, who marched six abresst. Eslava betrayed the most degged indifference to every preparation of death around him.

times must provide the remedy. We have laws enough here, but there are cases in which it would be folly to wait for the law to take its course. We will suppose a case. Bristol Bill, if here, could effect an entrance into any building in California. After plundering it, he might, if so disposed, set fire to it, and perhaps destroy the whole city. If caught in the act, he would be arrested. But what would be the use of putting him in confinement? There is not a prison in the State that he or an ordinarily expert burglar could not escape from In fact, it is a perfect mockery of justice to confine a criminal in them. The instinct of self-preservation, therefore, dictates that criminals should be disposed of at enone, and placed so that they cannot do further mischief. I venture to say that there will be no crime committed in the neighborhood of Mokelumne Hill for at least six months, because of this execution. As far as regards San Francisco, no man's house would be safe for a moment but for the Vigifance Committee. After making some terrible examples of malefacters, it disbanded as a body; but it delegated a committee to call it together again if occasion required it. There was a lull in crime for some time. The burglars and robbers at length commenced operations again. Two or three burglaries were committed each night. At length the Vigifance Committee were convened again, to the number of three hundred and fifty or four hundred persons. A resolution was passed, that the first person who was found in the act of burglary or murder, or who was arrested on suspicion of either, and on solemn trial, should be executed without delay. From that time—some three weeks ago—to the present, there has been no burglary or murder committed in San Francisco.

The shipments of gold for the year 1852, will reach an enormous amount. All persons who have visited the mining regions lately, concur in opinion that the yield will be enormous. Signora Biscaccianti is meeting with great success here. She has given several concerts; and on

The most encouraging news is received from the mining districts.

From Shasta the news is of a highly encouraging character. Thousands of miners who have been lying idle, waiting for water, have suddenly been enabled to engage in prontable employment. Now and rich diggings have been discovered on Regue River; also, upon the Klamath and Trinity rivers. Ten dollars per day, per man is thought to be rather under than over the average yield. A rich vein of gold bearing quartz has been discovered on Humbug creek, about six miles from Shasta Butte. The first pound of rock which was tested, yielded $29 worth of gold. The average yield is about $2 cents per pound. On the Yuba and Feather Rivers, their branches, and

On the Yuba and Feather Rivers, their branches, and throughout the adjacent country, like flattering accounts are received.

The miners in the vicinity of Long's Bar, Feather river, have been very successful. Two specimens, weighing respectively $5600 and nine ounces and a listly were recently found in Oregon guich, in that vicinity. Another piece, weighing one and a half poonds, was found in the same place a few-days afterwards. The company who found this piece, consisting of two men, took out $1,000 that week.

same place a few-days afterwards. The company who found this piece, consisting of two men, took out $1,000 that week.

Mr. Hamilton, of Wyandot, recently found two specimens of gold in that vicinity, weighing, respectively, $119 and $170. The miners are doing well there.

At Burgan's Plat, a company of thirty men are engaged in tunnelling the second bench of hills. They have bered through sold rock one hundred feet, and expect to 25 fifty feet further, before finding gold. Thus far it has cost them $3.000, and it is expected to est $5,000 more before it shall be finished.

At Evrossville, on Friday, the 26th off, a hump of pure gold, weighing $4.50 ounces, was found. The miners are define well there.

The Nevere Quarta Mill, one day last week crushed afteen tons of quarta from which were extracted $592.

In El heardo county, a number of gigantic canalling and tunnelling enterprises are on foot.

On Sunday, the Mth instant, afteen hundred ounces of gold dust changed bands in Placerville.

At Spanish and Murderer's Bars, on the Middle Pork

PRICE TWO CENTS.

At Mokelumne Hill, and in that vicinity, new diggings have been discovered. It is estimated that $50,000 fr. at the former place alone was sent into Stockton last we k. Mesers. Adams & Co. one day last week, at Stockton, received three hundred pounds of dust from the mines. New York Flat, Soldiers' Gulch, and other places which were supposed to be exhausted, are yielding handsom by. At the former place, $50 per pun had been taken out. From the inter place, it is estimated that $2,000,000 have been extracted, since it was first prospected.

A lump of pure gold valued at $1,200, was recently found at San Andreas. The finder refused $1,500 for it.

The excitement about quartz mining has, in a measure, died away, although we are constantly receiving intelligence of new and rick discoveries.

From one of the country papers we learn that, at Vallecit, a few days ago, a party of eight uncarthed and secured a lump of gold which weighs twenty-six pounds. It is nearly pure, there not being more than about half a pound of rock in it.

A lump of gold, weighing one and a haif pounds, was found in Osgon Gulch, near Feather river, one day last week. About $1,000 was taken out of the same gulch by two men in one week.

found in Osgon Guich, near Feather river, one day last week. About $1.000 was taken out of the same guich by two men in one week.

Miners around Big Oak Flat have been making goed wages since the rain. A man who works steadily can make from $4 to $6 per day.

Intelligence was received in Shasta Valley of gold discoveries on Regue river, near the Oregon trail. The claims on that portion of the river are said to be marvellously rich. Full confidence has been placed in the news from these mines. On the 9th, at least 500 persons had left Shasta Vallen for the Regue river mines.

At Kelrig. Bry diggings, mining was very profitable Since the flagfains the miners on the dividing ridge have been very successful, and many are rapidly accumulating fortunes. The average is stated to be, at the lowest calculation, an ounce per day to the man. A number of large and beautiful specimens are shown; among them, an immense lump shaped somewhat like the human hand, and on its surface small pieces, which appear as if they had been soldered into the large lump through violent volcanic action. The value of this specimen is estimated at $4,000.

Indian Difficulties.

A letter addressed to Col. Roderick McKee, U. S. Indian Commissioner, at San Francisco, dated Shasta Butta Oity, March 21st, contains the following information. The letter is from the temporary Indian agent at that place:

A war of extermination has been declared by the whites against the Indians and many aborigines have been killed. An Indian that was left by Col. McKee with Mr. T. J. Roach was shot at Happy Camp by Capt, Gwinn R. Tompkins, for stealing a knife. A miner, with whom the Indians were intimate, started down the river with the Indian mentioned, for Happy Camp, and loitering among several camps on the way was repeatedly advised not to go to that camp, as he would be killed. He persisted, however in going, and was shot as he was crossing the stream. The miner remained at Happy Camp a few days, and upon his return was identified by the Indianan as being the person seen with the Indian that was killed. They accused him of the deed, threatoning his life, and also that of two or three others. The whitelearned through an Indian speaking the jargon, thaf revenge would be taken for the murder, and that the squaws had all been removed to Scott's Valley. The party whose lives were threatened, went down to Happy Camp, raised a crowd, came up the Klamath River, estlecting miners on their way up, and on the morning of the 12th surrounded two lodges at the Indian ferry, and shot all the mon, several squaws, and destroyed the rasche. The same scene was cancted at Indian First, two miles above—but one escaping, and he wounded. Some thirty or forty Indians were killed, and two whites wounded, one badly. The squaws and children are in Scott's Valley, meurning over their hard fate and begging for bread.

The Chinese at San Francisco.

(From the San Francisco Herald, April 5th.)

The petiticated gentry, the Chinese seem to be holding a "pretracted meeting," amidst which they have had apparently, brave feasting. Their general habit of abstemiousness has been made rather a subject of complaint, by those who think they ought to spend for the good of the country a fair proportion of their earnings; but on the present occasion they would appear determined to redeem themselves from such reprosed. Great pods of rice, carcasses of hogs, sheep and goats, flanked by a liberal supply of "chicken fixins," have formed the staples of their feast, to which also were added a due proportion of preserves and sweet cakes. These solids were probably distributed by copious draughts of tea, for there did not appear any symptoms of a stronger infusion. Their feativities, of course, have been emistened by music; and the performers, seated on the top of a porch worked away in a style that the experts no doubt entirely appreciated. Their own countenances expressed unbounded satisfaction; and a crowd of hombres, in the street below, demanded frequent encores. Not "being to the manner bora," our enthusiasm did not reach any very extraordinary height; but, on the contrary, after the vain attempt to camprefished their melody, we came to the conclusion that, including a linguishing the color of different material; one being of brass and the other of wood, over which was stretched a parchment, as in our style. [From the Alta Californian April 5th.]

The Celestials concluded their annual festivity on last Saturday night by having a grand musical pow-wow at the hone of Wang Hing, Esq. on Sacramento street. They had collected in large numbers for the occasion and the balcony of the house was densely crowded. The musical instruments censisted of a gong, a dram with but one head, a pair of cymbals, and some leind of a stringed machine, evidently a cross between a guitar and an oxyoke. The moment the orchestra struck up, the salcoms in the neighborhood vemited forth their crowds, the dogacommenced howing the police were promptly on the spot, and everything was noise and confusion. A large crowd remained for several hours in front of the house, listening to the horrible and soul-tearing discord, and during the intervals, when the musicians would stop to wet their whistles, the outsiders would cheer vooiferously, which would induce the man with the gong to hammer it so unmercifully that the noise bore a strong rescusioned to a thunder storm in a cane brake. The performances concluded only with the day, when the audience dispersed; and many retired to be blessed with dreams of squallings, maulings, and caterwaulings.
